Clean Energy Completes Acquisition of IMW

-- Positions Clean Energy as a World Leader in Natural Gas Fueling and Compression Technology for the Growing US and International NGV Markets --

Conference Call To Be Held Today, September 7 at 11 am PDT/2 pm EDT

SEAL BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Clean Energy Fuels Corp. (Nasdaq: CLNE) has completed the acquisition of substantially all of the assets of IMW Industries, Ltd. (IMW). IMW manufactures and services advanced natural gas fueling compressors and related equipment that is sold to station operators and commercial fleets and has provided more than 1,000 installations in over 20 countries. IMW is headquartered near Vancouver, British Columbia and has a second manufacturing facility near Shanghai, China.

The purchase price includes $15.6 million in cash and 4,017,408 shares of Clean Energy stock that will be issued to IMW's shareholder. An additional $288,000 will be paid by Clean Energy once the Chinese regulatory authorities approve the transfer of IMW Compressors (Shanghai) Co. Ltd. to the Company, which is anticipated within the next forty-five days. The shares issued at closing are registered and available for immediate resale by the IMW shareholder. Clean Energy has also agreed to pay IMW's shareholder four additional annual payments of $12.5 million each (consisting of $5 million in cash plus an additional $7.5 million in cash or Clean Energy common stock to be determined at Clean Energy's option) on January 31, 2011 through 2014. IMW's shareholder may also receive an earn-out payment based on certain percentages of future gross profits earned by IMW over the next four years, assuming the gross profit exceeds certain minimum thresholds, up to a maximum of $40 million in the aggregate.

"This acquisition positions Clean Energy strategically in the forefront of the rapidly growing natural gas vehicle industry worldwide," said Andrew J. Littlefair, Clean Energy President and CEO. "It also strengthens our service package domestically as an integrated provider of advanced compression technology, station-building and fueling."
