Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(d) On January 30, 2014, our board of directors, upon the recommendation of our nominating and corporate governance committee, appointed Stephen Scully to our board of directors. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Scully qualifies as independent under the independence standards set forth in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2). At this time, Mr. Scully has not been named to any committee of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Scully, 54, was founder and president of the Scully Companies, a California based truck leasing and specialized contract carriage provider. He started the company immediately after graduating from college in 1981 and subsequently sold it to Ryder System in 2011. The Scully Companies was the largest independent asset based logistics provider in the western U.S. Mr. Scully is a past chairman and director of the National Truck Leasing System, board member of the Truck Rental and Leasing Association, board member of Ameritrust Transportation and Logistics Resources and member of the California Trucking Association.

Mr. Scully's compensation for his services as a director will be consistent with that of our other non-employee directors, as described in our definitive proxy statement filed on March 28, 2013. Other than the standard compensation arrangements, there are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Scully and any other persons pursuant to which Mr. Scully was selected as a director. Mr. Scully is not a party to any transaction that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

On January 31, 2014, we issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Scully to our board of directors. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

CLEAN ENERGY NAMES STEPHEN SCULLY TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (January 31, 2014) — Clean Energy Fuels Corp. (Nasdaq: CLNE) announced today that Stephen Scully has been appointed to its board of directors. The election of Mr. Scully as an independent member on January 30 is effective immediately and expands the board to nine members.

“We welcome Steve to our board and look forward to tapping into his extensive experience of starting and growing a successful business,” said Andrew J. Littlefair, president and CEO of Clean Energy. “With his deep understanding of the trucking industry, which is beginning its transition to natural gas, Steve will be a great asset for Clean Energy’s board and the entire company.”

Mr. Scully was founder and president of the Scully Companies, a California based truck leasing and specialized contract carriage provider. He started the company immediately after graduating from college in 1981 and subsequently sold it to Ryder System in 2011. The Scully Companies was the largest independent asset based logistics provider in the western U.S. Mr. Scully is a past chairman and director of the National Truck Leasing System, board member of the Truck Rental and Leasing Association, board member of Ameritrust Transportation and Logistics Resources and member of the California Trucking Association.

Mr. Scully serves on the advisory board of USC Wrigley Institute for Environmental Studies and on the philanthropy committee of the International Fund for Animal Welfare. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Southern California.

“As an entrepreneur, it is an honor to be appointed to the board of such a dynamic company,” said Mr. Scully. “I have watched with admiration as Clean Energy has almost single-handedly created the natural gas fueling market. I look forward to working with the other board members and the executive team to grow the company into new markets including one close to my heart, the trucking industry.”

About Clean Energy Fuels Corp.
